The word "glove" is probably derived from the Gothic lofa, the palm of the hand. Gloves do not appear to have been used in England before the close of the tenth century; but they were previously used by the Romans, Greeks, and Persians.

*Ten years ago the name of Lydia E. Pinkham was scarcely known outside of her native State. To-day it is household word all over the Continent and many who read the secular and religious journals have become familiar with the face that shines on them with a modest confidence, in which we read the truth that "Nothing ill can dwell in such a temple."

. "He that prays harm for his neighbor, begs a curse upon himself." He that recommends Kidney-Wort to his sick neighbor brings a blessing rich and full both to his neighbor and himself. Habitual costiveness is the bane of nearly every American woman. Every woman owes it to herself and to her family to use that celebrated medicine, Kidney-Wort.

The school of the nobles in Tokio. Japan, has, in the court behind the school building, a physical map of that country between 300 and 400 feet long. It is made of turf and rock, and is bordered with pebbles, which look at a little distance much like water. Every inlet, river, and mountain is reproduced in this model with a fidelity to detail which is simply wonderful. Latitude and longitude are indicated by telegraph wires, and tablets show the position of the cities.

Every farmer needs a reliable Live-Stock Journal and we have made arrangements to furnish to our subscribers just such a journal. The Plateau Gazette and the Breeders' Live-Stock Journal one year for the small sum of $2.00. Every subscriber will receive a large and choice engraving of the famous Hereford cattle.
